

Our Story

It all started with fresh spring water.

In 1935 Hope Makris' parents, James and Fannie Salta, purchased the hillside property across the street specifically to bottle and sell Natural Spring Water (NA-S-WA). The coined word from NASWA Spring Water Company gave us our signature name and a heritage to remember.

In 1935, Jim Salta built five one-room cottages on the hillside and by 1938 he added four more. The hurricane of 1938 blew them all down, but Jim bravely rebuilt The NASWA cabins, adding 11 more waterfront cabins in the 1940s.

Our matriarch, Hope Salta, married Peter Makris from Roxbury, Mass. in 1950. Hope and Peter bought The NASWA from her parents in 1953 and added The Aqua Vista Beachfront building and main Lobby & Restaurant in 1957. Eventually The NASWA cabins became the NASWA Motor Inn and today we have 82 units, many painted in the tropical colors of the Caribbean.

Building our lakeside paradise, we added the NazBar & Grill in 1980. We started it with a small shack on the beach, a bottle of rum and a blender. Now it's The Coolest Place on Lake Winnepesaukee!

Our Blue Bistro was recently named one of the top 15 restaurants in NH for the second year in a row. Inside The NASWA, Blue Bistro serves Brilliantly Crafted Cuisine, from the Bountiful Breakfast to Certified Angus Beef™ steaks, to the Fresh Seafood offered daily. The menu tempts with inspired Small Plates and extraordinary Blue Bistro entrees which can also be ordered from The NazBar.

Desserts are given a special touch here as Hope Makris, now 95, creates her "Hope-Made" sweets with "Agape" (love in Greek). Her Tommy Bahama Cake with rum, pineapple and coconut is truly spectacular. She is simply amazing as the quintessential female pioneer in New Hampshire tourism and hospitality.

Peter Makris, our beloved Big Kahuna passed away in 2007. We still feel the strength of his larger-than-life personality. Peter would happily greet newcomers and old friends alike from his perch at The NazBar.

The accolades keep coming!

Powerboat Magazine named The NazBar one of the Top 20 Boating Hot Spots in the country and we have been featured on many TV shows including TV Diner, NECN The Ride, NECN Wicked Bites, Adam Richman's Fandemonium, Discovery Channel's Road to Sturgis. The NASWA has also won New Hampshire Magazine's Best of NH, Yankee Magazine's Best of New England and Best Cottages - 2019 Best of the Lakes Region!

*Philanthropy to our community:
we happily give from the heart.*

We host two major fundraising events each summer. The Peter Makris Memorial Run is the Official Kick Off to Laconia Motorcycle Week and we have raised more than $460,000. We support Easter Seals Veterans Count Program and fully fund the Fire Rescue Boats and Life Saving Fund for the Laconia Fire Department.

We are grateful to everyone who donates to these memorable events. We have helped raise $1.26 MM since 2000 for Easter Seals NH with HK Powersports Land & Lake Poker Run.

The Makris family wants to personally Thank You, our loyal NASWA guests, for your continued friendship over the past 85 years.

Because of you, we are still going strong!
